

Subject: one of my best Nowruz memories

- This year was one of my best Nowruz. The first thing we did after Nowruz was to celebrate my brother's admission Iran university of medical sciences. This celebration was held on the twenty second of march.

We invited about thirty people to this celebration we grilled seven kilos of meat and made Fasanjan along with kebab.

After lunch, we danced so much that we couldn't get up.

At the same time, two of my mother's uncle's and the daughter of one of them played music and sang with one of my uncles. Their song was with Def and Tambak

Then we went to open the gifts and my brother said: «I don't know how to open the gifts, you open them».

After taking pictures and opening the gifts, we cut and ate the cake and danced again. This celebration continued until the end of the night and finally ended.

- The next day, my cousin came to our house and we played game with play station.
- My family returned to Tehran on twenty fourth of march and came to the north on twenty ninth of March.

The day after my parents returned, we went to five houses for a spectacular Eid and we went to my father's parents' house for the night and dinner and.....

- Two days later on first of April was my brother's birthday and we had the second party and I did my homework until five am after the guests left .
- The next day , we went to lonak for the thirteenth of April .
