

This year we went by train to visit my grandmother and grandfather, I was very happy, actually I had never traveled by train before. It was so good. We arrived at 3 am

After that we went to the garden and saw our chickens and came back. we had a great time. My grandmother and grandfather have a dog that I am very afraid of. It was also in the garden.

And he was playing with the chickens. Their game was very interesting!!!!!!|